2016 CIAC Baseball Championships Dedication

John DeNunzio

John DeNunzio was a star football and baseball player at New Britain High School, graduating in 1940. He played freshman football at Morehead College in Kentucky, then transferred to what is now Central Connecticut State University where he played football and basketball. His collegiate education was interrupted by World War II and he entered the U.S. Army Air Corps and served with distinction as part of what Tom Brokaw called America's Greatest Generation.

After the war, he returned to college and played one more year of football at Central from which he earned his bachelor's degree. He then went on to earn his Master's Degree from the University of Hartford.

Outside of school, DeNunzio also played baseball for the New Britain American Legion team, played in the New Britain City Baseball League and played semi-pro football for the Hartford Blues.

But it is his service to the youth of Connecticut for which he is most remembered and for which he is being honored today. He began his coaching and teaching career at Lyman Memorial High in Lebanon in 1947 as baseball and basketball coach. He coached basketball and baseball at Durham High in 1950, then came to Middletown where he taught and coached for 32 years, retiring in 1984 after 39 years in education. He was the line coach at Middletown High under legendary football coach Waino Fillback for 16 years. He then became head coach and served in that position for 13 years. He began coaching baseball in Middletown at Central Middle School in 1953 and became head baseball coach at Middletown High in 1957. He held that position for 28 years, winning 283 games. His teams qualified for the state tournament 17 times and his 1966 and 1972 teams were state finalists. He was named the Connecticut High School Coaches' Association Baseball Coach of the Year in 1979 and the Middletown Umpires' Association named him Coach of the Year three times in 1969, 1972 and 1979. He was inducted into the Connecticut High School Coaches' Association Hall of Fame in 1992 and his plaque is in the Hall of Fame at Rentschler Field in East Hartford. He was inducted into the Middletown Sports Hall of Fame in 1997 and served as head coach of the CHSCA All-Star team in 1975 and served as an assistant coach to the all-star team in 1983.

In 2010, the baseball field at the new Middletown High School was named in his honor. On this day, June 11, 2016, the CIAC is proud to announce that this year's high school championship games are dedicated to a coach who will be celebrating his 97th birthday this year -- a Middletown High School and City of Middletown legend -- John DeNunzio.
