Dear CIAC Coaches,

We would like to invite you and your team to an Anthem Girls Symposium for female high school student-athletes entitled, "Championing Your Own Success". The Symposium will take place during the Connecticut Open Tennis event at the Connecticut Tennis Center at Yale on Monday, August 20.

Sponsored by Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield, the Symposium was created by the Connecticut Open in 2013 to create an informative and engaging forum for CIAC female student-athletes. This year's Symposium will feature Former #1 WTA Player, Olympic Gold Medalist and Hall of Fame Inductee, Lindsay Davenport. The high school athletes will be able to engage with Lindsay during and after the Symposium.

Everyone is welcome to arrive early and walk the grounds before the Symposium begins. At the conclusion of the Symposium, please be our guest to watch legendary women's professional tennis, up close and personal. Overall, the day will be a fun, positive, and informative experience for everyone.
