

ASPIRING ADMINISTRATORS CONFERENCE
“Getting Ready to Get Ready”

A Residential Conference for Selected Aspirant Administrators
Nominated by Superintendents and/or Principals
Designed and Facilitated by Practicing Administrators
Dolce Heritage Conference Center, Southbury
October 5 and 6, 2006

Who Should Attend?

- ✓ Those who are considering administration.
- ✓ Those who are encouraged to consider administration by their districts.
- ✓ Those who have administrator’s certification but who are not actively pursuing administrative positions.
- ✓ Those without administrator’s certification seeking more information.

What is the Focus of the Conference?

- ✓ An introduction to the role of the principal.
- ✓ A motivational approach to the rewards of the principal’s position.
- ✓ A look at leadership qualities.
- ✓ Resources and programs through which aspirants can pursue certification and certified individuals can pursue the principalship.

What is the Cost to the District?

- ✓ $100.00 per participant, single occupancy (includes full cost – registration, meals, lodging).
- ✓ $50.00 per person, double occupancy (includes full cost – registration, meals, lodging)

How Many May You Nominate?

- ✓ You may nominate as many as you wish. However, space is limited to 100 participants so please submit your list in priority order.
- ✓ Questions – Contact Mike Buckley, Director, at CAS 203-250-1111.

Please return your nomination by September 8, 2006.

Nominator _____ Title _____
School/School District _____

Nominations:

Name _____ Position _____
School _____
Address _____

Name _____ Position _____
School _____
Address _____

