KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Richard A. Carranza, NYC Schools Chancellor

Dr. Richard Carranza is chancellor of New York City Department of Education, the largest school system in the nation servicing 1.1 million students. He has over thirty years of experience in the education field ranging from classroom teacher, principal, superintendent, and now chancellor. Dr. Carranza credits his public school education for putting him on a path to college and a successful career. As Chancellor, he is building on NYC's equity and excellence for all agenda which supports students academically, socially and emotionally from early childhood through twelve grade. Dr. Carranza is also championing initiatives to help educators strengthen their practice and to empower more parents to become engaged in their children's education.
