

An opportunity for National Honor Society Members, Faculty Council members, and Honor Society advisors to come together to create enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulate a desire to render service locally and statewide, enhance and promote leadership skills, and focus on student member character development.

TRIP DRAWING

Every school attending the conference is eligible to win five prepaid registrations for the 2016 State National Honor Society Conference.

CONFERENCE WORKSHOP PROGRAMS

Keynote Speaker Ed Gerety

National speaker Ed Gerety will join National Honor Society students from across Connecticut presenting a program that will address real issues that the youth of today and schools are facing. During his assembly presentation “Making Your Mark”, Mr. Gerety will focus his comments on “The power of respect and responsibility”, “The impact and consequences of our choices and desires”, “The issues of bullying, peer pressure, drugs, alcohol and tobacco”, “Appreciation for our abilities and the people in our life”, “The courage to believe in oneself”, and “The power we have to reach out and make a difference”. Throughout his presentation, Mr. Gerety will instantly capture his audience’s attention through his passion, personal experiences, humor and real life examples. His programs and workshops are high-energy, interactive, and leave a lasting impact.

Educational and Interactive Workshop High School Workshop Ed Gerety

The focus of the workshop will be leadership training for all students in attendance. This high impact session will give participants new skills and techniques that help them discover, develop, and strengthen their leadership abilities. This interactive workshop is designed to teach students the skills that are essential to setting and achieving their goals. Participants will discover how to put their passion and enthusiasm into real projects that produce specific, measurable results. Participants will be given specific strategies on how to increase and maintain their positive attitude.

What’s your style? Middle School Workshop Jenn Buckley

We all have personal styles, ways of interacting, things we gravitate towards and things we shy away from. Learn about your individual leadership style and explore some common dimensions and traits of leadership styles of others. Enhance your understanding of and ability to work with people with different styles and characteristics from your own.
