

An opportunity for National Honor Society Members, Faculty Council members, and Honor Society advisors to come together to create enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulate a desire to render service locally and statewide, enhance and promote leadership skills and focus on student member character development.

TRIP DRAWING

Every school attending the conference is eligible to win five prepaid registrations for the 2013 State National Honor Society Conference.

CANHS News

As of February 1, 2012, approximately 200 NHS and NJHS chapters have joined CANHS as state association members.

Program Format

Our state conference program format will engage students in discussion and also formalize anti-bullying programs that can be implemented on the secondary school level to reduce bullying. Table talk discussions facilitated by professional adults that have experience developing strategies that support effective programs will support the efforts of conference attendees to return to their respective schools with proposals that could be implemented to reduce bullying in their schools. Each participating school will receive a print out of programs developed that could be implemented. Ms. Logan West, Miss Connecticut's Outstanding Teen will be the keynote speaker and will focus her remarks on "Empowering Children Today to Prevent Bullying Tomorrow". Logan is currently a senior at the Greater Hartford Academy of the Arts where she is a dance major. She has done several NBC and Public Access television segments because of the difference she has made in her community.
