

CAS Endowment Fund Grant in Honor of Dawn Lafferty-Hochsprung

(This grant is offered to K-12 principals)

Dawn Lafferty-Hochsprung was the principal of Sandy Hook Elementary School who died while trying to protect her school family. As a principal and a lifelong student, Dawn strove for excellence and encouraged those around her to do the same. Dawn attended many CAS and NAESP workshops and events, always seeking ways to enhance her school community. Her commitment to professional growth and personal development enhanced her already finely honed 21st Century leadership style.

The Connecticut Association of Schools is accepting proposals for a grant in Dawn's memory. Through the CAS Endowment Fund, this grant is being offered to active K-12 CAS school principals. It will provide a yearly competitive grant focused on supporting excellence and enhancing the principal's role.

Some examples that may be submitted for consideration include but are not limited to:

- Develop/ Enhance Personal Leadership Capacity
- Enhance Leadership Training
- Develop Professional Leadership
- Attend Programs such as the CAS Summer Leadership Institute, CAS Principal's Leadership Series, or other CAS workshops

Funding levels:

• Foundation grant of up to $2,000

Grant Criteria:

• Development of an Action Plan that addresses the principal's professional growth and selection of one of the six leadership standards* (See attached list of the six leadership standards)*

Considerations:

- Level of Learning: Does the proposal enrich sustained learning?
- Impact: How will this impact the principal's professional development?
- Need: Has the applicant clearly communicated a need? Does the proposal identify how the need will be addressed?

Grant Restrictions:

• The grant does not support coursework in a planned program or travel

The CAS Endowment Fund is now entertaining proposals from active CAS member school principals at all levels. All applications will be reviewed and scored by a committee of school principals and CAS staff. The total number of requests achieving an acceptable score will be prioritized against the available funds. Applications are due June 30, 2016
