

State Leadership Advisory Board Election Process

ELIGIBILITY

- Student is a member of the State Leadership Advisory Board
- Student has attended at least 2 meetings during the year
- Student must have an adviser actively participating on the board
- Only one representative from a school may run for an office

PROCESS

- Student completes the Intent to Run Form
- Student prepares and delivers short speech to members of the board on April 27th

VOTING

- Following candidate speeches, students from each school will caucus together and will be allowed to cast one vote per office, based on the consensus of the school.
- Balloting will be counted and certified by a member of the CAS staff.
- Students will be notified concerning the result of the election prior to departure from the meeting where voting takes place

INDUCTION

- Officers will be inducted for the period of one year.
- Officers will be expected to maintain regular attendance at meetings, and meet the responsibilities of the job as outlined in the officer responsibilities.

REMOVAL

- In the unlikely event that a student is unable or unwilling to meet the duties of their office there are several options:
 - The officer can resign their position. If a student has resigned they are no longer eligible for an office for the remainder of that year.
 - The officer can be removed from office by the adult members of the Board, after a consultation with the student and their adviser.
