

SAVE THE DATE!

LEADING FOR LITERACY

OCTOBER 10, 2017

8:30 AM - 2:40 PM

SHERATON HARTFORD SOUTH HOTEL
ROCKY HILL, CT

DR. WILLIAM TEALE

William Teale is Professor of Education, University Scholar, and Director of the Center for Literacy at the University of Illinois at Chicago. He is also President of the International Literacy Association. His work has focused on early literacy learning, technology and literacy education, and children's literature. He has written for many scholarly books and journals, and he has presented papers and colloquia in over 25 countries.

PLUS Unveiling a free tool that will help district leaders monitor implementation of their literacy programs,* as well as panels and sessions on literacy practices from exemplary schools/districts that have overcome challenges to raise student achievement.

RSVP Districts are encouraged to register district/school literacy teams,* which may include superintendents, assistant superintendents, school principals, curriculum leaders, etc. Our events fill up quickly. Reserve your spot at: <https://LeadingForLiteracy.eventbrite.com>

PRESENTED BY

EDUCATION
& WORKFORCE
PARTNERSHIP

Presented in partnership with the Connecticut Association of Schools (CAS).

Endorsed by CABB, CAPSS, and ConnCAN.

*Part of this event will involve the use of a new, free tool (created by Literacy How, HILL for Literacy, and CCER) for self-assessing and improving literacy programs. To maximize your district's experience, please have your superintendent register the district at literacyscan.org and bring login credentials to the event.

(All data entered into this tool is confidential and anonymous.)