The CT Association of High School Principals

Presents

Another Mini-Conference in its Series for School Leaders

EVALUATION UNDER THE REVISED NEASC STANDARDS – A VIEW FROM THE TRENCHES

Tuesday, January 7, 2004

3:00 – 5:00 p.m.

Maloney High School, Meriden

A panel of CT high school principals whose schools have been evaluated with the revised standards or who have chaired visiting committees using the revised standards will share their experiences and participate in discussion of all aspects of the accreditation process. Whether you are in the process of preparing for or reacting to an evaluation – or even if your evaluation seems a distance away – you will benefit from the experiences of your colleagues who have been directly involved in an evaluation. Participants include:

Jerome Auclair, Principal, Darien High School
Elaine Bessette, Headmistress, Greenwich High School
Tom Moore, Principal, Wethersfield High School
David Perry, Principal, North Branford High School

Feel free to bring a team. This conference is intended for principals, assistant principals, steering committee chairs or members, or others involved in the evaluation process. Annually, this is one of our best attended and highest rated mini-conferences. Don't miss this opportunity to network with your fellow practitioners and become better informed about the school improvement process using the NEASC standards.
