The Connecticut State Department of Education, the Connecticut Association of Schools and Cooperative Educational Services - with support from the Wallace Foundation - are collaborating to develop a continuum of standards-based school leader professional development programs. Classroom Data : Feedback, Follow up and Follow Through This is one of the learning opportunities developed especially for administrators.

This Academy is intentionally scheduled in early summer in order to provide each participant an opportunity to:

- Reflect on experiences from the past year;
- use teacher observation to focus on student work;
- explore tools for analyzing classroom data;
- learn how to apply current research on teacher feedback to students;
- support teacher collaboration and/or a data team process to provide instructional feedback;
- learn how to follow up and follow through as an instructional leader; and
- enhance your skills as an instructional leader.

Participants who register will be asked to bring a some specific classroom data samples from their schools to the Academy.
