

WORKSHOPS I & II

Legal Implications: Understanding the Do's and Don'ts of Writing Teacher Evaluations

Tuesday, March 7, 2007 - 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Tuesday, March 13, 2007 - 8:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Presenter: THOMAS MOSENFELDER, J.D., & GOODWIN, LLC., and NEAG SCHOOL OF EDUCATION, UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT

The series opens with a legal overview on the do's and don'ts of writing teacher evaluations, developing action plans, and observing teachers. Workshops I and II will help administrators ensure that all preliminary groundwork is in order and evaluations are written appropriately. Administrators may bring in actual cases for analysis.

WORKSHOP III

Classroom Walk-Throughs and Professional Learning Communities: The Principals Role

Monday, March 19, 2007 - 3:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Presenters: UCLA SCHOOL MANAGEMENT PROGRAM STAFF

Workshop III will review the essential elements that comprise high quality and sustainable professional learning communities – a process that may be reached through protocols like the classroom walk-through. The role of the principal will be examined including the skills needed to empower and trust teachers to implement instructional conversations for improving teaching and learning.

WORKSHOP IV

Supporting and Retaining New Teachers: The Principals Role

Monday, April 2, 2007 - 3:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Presenters: UCLA SCHOOL MANAGEMENT PROGRAM STAFF

Many districts in CT provide high-quality resources aimed at shepherding teachers through their first years of teaching. Research demonstrates principals play a crucial role in supporting the success of new teachers and ultimately deciding whether they stay or go elsewhere. This session focuses on the role of the principal in mentoring and retaining new teachers.

WORKSHOP V

Summative Evaluations and More

Tuesday, April 3, 2007 - 3:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Presenter: ELAINE COFFIN, Ph.D., FORMER PROGRAM DIRECTOR, PRINCIPAL & ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT FOR INSTRUCTION

The purpose of teacher evaluation is to promote student learning through continuous improvement in teaching. This workshop will focus on various aspects of the supervision/evaluation process with an emphasis on the summative evaluation. Topics will include components of an evaluation and professional development plan, writing effective evaluations, and responses to diverse teachers and their needs.

The Connecticut Principals' Center of The Connecticut Association of Schools is pleased to offer a series of professional development workshops for school administrators. The series will consist of five workshops, each of which addresses a component of teacher evaluation. They are designed to provide administrators with an opportunity to fulfill the requirements of the amendment to the Connecticut General Statutes which mandates the completion of 15 of the required 90 hours of continuing education in the area of teacher evaluation. Administrators may register for one or more of the individual session on line at www.casciac.org (preferred) or by completing and mailing/faxing the form below.
