About the Program...

This one-day program is designed to support the daily work of school secretaries and their important contributions to a school's culture and a positive teaching and learning environment. The program includes up-to-the-minute information and practical suggestions to help secretaries do their job even better. Attendees will spend time addressing issues that relate to their daily work; in such areas as legal issues, student records retention, special education, state and federal laws and regulations, just to name a few.

The afternoon presentation will feature the secretary's role as a public relations provider in a school or central office setting, as well as issues relating to Special Education.

Sessions will include opportunities for questions and answers. Every participant will receive a packet of conference materials, along with a seminar evaluation.

For those attendees who would like to reserve a room for Thursday and/or Friday night, Water's Edge Resort has offered a group rate at $125.00 . Reservations can be made directly through the resort. Be sure to mention that you are attending the CAS Secretaries Conference.

Featured Speakers are...

The morning featured speakers are Attorneys Thomas B. Mooney and Gwen Zittoun. They are attorneys with the law firm of Shipman and Goodwin, LLP, in Hartford and are frequent speakers on legal issues affecting schools.

The Breakthrough Coach will show you and your supervisor how to work with less, produce more and get the job done in a sensible school week.

Arlene Salvati is a former teacher, coach and school administrator who has had extensive experience with time management and organizational skills presentations.

Nancy Tucker will be back by popular demand for the afternoon entertainment.
