www.sltp.info

I always have seen myself as a simple teacher. My homeroom assignment may have changed, and the class size might be considered too extreme, but my perception of myself has not really altered. Schools and society today face many challenges. Wishful thinking would narrow the focus of student leadership to school dances, fundraisers, bake sales and other traditional school related concerns, but that is what it is - wishful thinking. Student leaders live and operate in the real world. We must do everything we can to prepare them to do so, because student leadership is the answer.

The Connecticut Association of Student Councils has partnered with the Student Leadership Training Program to offer students of Connecticut specialized leadership training. For those of you who may be unfamiliar with SLTP, it is the program coordinated by Dr. Jim Fitzgerald. Dr. Fitzgerald has been our featured speaker for 4 out of the 5 small leadership workshops this year.

You can read more about the SLTP program at www.sltp.info.

A limited number of spaces are available to members of the Connecticut Association of Student Councils to register their students for the camp at a discounted rate. Regular attendance is $380 per student. Reduced rate will be $345 per student. Connecticut weeks are July 14-18, 2009 and July 21-25, 2009.

Schools that are interested in sending students to one of these special programs should contact Sarah Jones at sjones@casciac.org and place CAMP in the subject line.
