- Become a member of the local and state boards in your sport which is a prerequisite for enrolling in the CIAC Officials' Association.
- Observe veteran officials in as many games as possible.
- Be cleared through a CIAC background check.
- You are now ready to officiate youth, middle, or high school level games with opportunities to advance as you gain experience.

Female Officials: CIAC Needs You!

There are numerous opportunities for women in high school officiating, and the CIAC enthusiastically encourages all interested women to seriously consider becoming a certified official in your favorite sport or sports. We want you to know that you would be most welcomed in all CIAC sponsored sports for both girls and boys. We have many outstanding female officials whose presence on the field, court, mat, and in the pool serve as much needed role models for all high school athletes. Most importantly, officials derive great satisfaction from being involved in their favorite sports, earning additional income, and contributing to high school athletics in Connecticut. Join the ranks of officiating.

We Need You!

Important Role Of Officials

High school officials are an integral part of interscholastic athletics. They play a critical role in ensuring that student-athletes learn good sportsmanship and the values of fair play. Officials are responsible for establishing a level playing field where participants can develop a respect for the rules, respect for the game, and respect for their opponents. Officials take an active role in shaping the lives of high school athletes by being an example of integrity.

Athletic Directors And Coaches: We Need Your Help!

Many former high school athletes develop into outstanding officials. With a word of encouragement from you, more of your athletes will consider staying involved in sports through officiating. Please distribute the brochures and offer interested students/athletes the opportunity to join the officiating ranks. Quality officiating enhances high school athletics. Thanks for your help!

Officials Boards

The CIAC recognizes the importance and the benefits of increasing the pool of officials to best serve our member schools. We encourage and support your recruiting efforts to attract new officials to meet the growing demand on all levels of play. Please utilize this brochure and other recruiting strategies to accomplish this goal.
