

Here is your Invitation to Nominate an Outstanding CAS Middle Level School as

CAS Middle School of the Year

Nominations may be made by any present or former member of the school staff or by district central office personnel

Purpose

To give public recognition in Connecticut and nationally to an outstanding CAS member middle level school that represents the best in the profession. The school chosen will receive recognition in the media, in CAS publications and at a CAS sponsored ceremony in their community.

Eligibility

The following criteria will be used to determine the recipient of this award.

1. The school must be a member of CAS and exhibit the following “Best Practices.”
 - Evidence of a safe and healthy school environment
 - Evidence that the school involves parents and the community in supporting student learning and healthy development*
 - Student services that go beyond those that are part of a typical school, i.e. clubs, activities, support services, extra help for those who need it
 - Evidence that the school’s educational programs are consistently being reviewed and improved.
 - A researched based curriculum with appropriate assessment grounded in standards
 - Instructional methods and strategies designed to prepare students to meet high standards
 - Teaming practices that drive instruction
 - Personalization of the school environment
 - Collaborative leadership and professional learning communities

* Based on “Turning Points 2000”, “This We Believe” and “Breaking Ranks in the Middle.”
2. Previous winners may not apply for a period of five years and must clearly show significant change from the previous application. Finalists {schools receiving site visits} must wait until the third school year following the visit before re-applying. Schools not selected as finalists are welcome to re-apply at any time.
3. Each of the nine criteria listed above must be individually addressed in narrative form. The total response must not exceed 10 pages (12 point font/single spaced).
4. A copy of the strategic school profile must accompany the application (not included in the ten page application maximum).
5. A copy of the student/parent handbook must also accompany the application (not counted in the ten page application maximum)
6. The application will be judged solely on the printed application and requested documents. Please do not reference or send additional materials
7. Applications must be delivered to CAS or postmarked no later than February 25, 2014.
8. The winning school will be invited to share exemplary practices and programs with other CAS middle level schools by offering CAS workshops, writing for CAS publications and/or welcoming visitors to their school.
9. Nominations should be submitted to:

*Mr. Earle G. Bidwell, Assistant Executive Director
The Connecticut Association of Schools
30 Realty Drive, Cheshire, Connecticut 06410*

Timeline: Applications will be reviewed in March and April and two finalists will be visited in May, 2014
