2026 CAS-CIAC HIGH SCHOOL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

PEOPLE
IDEAS
PERSPECTIVES
ACTION
CHANGE

SOUTHERN CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 2026

RISE & LEAD: BE THE REASON TOMORROW LOOKS DIFFERENT!

High school student leaders and their advisors will gather at Southern Connecticut State University for an exciting full-day conference designed to strengthen leadership skills, build connections and inspire positive change. Through hands-on, interactive workshops, students will explore collaboration, communication, diversity awareness, problem-solving, decision-making, mental health, financial literacy, and student voice and advocacy while developing the confidence and skills to make a meaningful impact in their schools and communities.

KEY DETAILS

Check-in & Breakfast: 8:15–8:45 AM

Conference: 8:45 AM–1:00 PM

Optional Post-Conference College Tour: 1:15–2:15 PM

Date: December 4, 2026

Site: Southern Connecticut State University

Registration Deadline: November 20, 2026

Cost: $40.00 per person, students and advisors

Capacity: Maximum 15 students + 2 advisors per school

Additional Space: If more space becomes available, schools will be notified closer to the conference date.

Questions? Corey Plasky, cplasky@casciac.org

WORKSHOP TOPICS

- Student Voice & Advocacy
- Collaboration
- Communication
- Diversity Awareness
- Problem-Solving
- Decision-Making
- Mental Health
- Financial Literacy

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Margaux Hyde

CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

Margaux (Farrell) Hyde is the Chief Communications Officer at Root Center for Advanced Recovery, where she leads the organization's marketing, public and media relations, social media, events, and community engagement efforts.

REGISTRATION

https://casci.ac/13417