

Berchem, Moses & Devlin, P.C. Partners with CAS

The Connecticut Association of Schools is pleased to announce that Berchem, Moses & Devlin, P.C. has recently partnered with CAS as the sponsor of the highly esteemed Governor's Scholars Program. Now in its twentieth year, the Governor's Scholars Program recognizes academically talented high school students in schools throughout the state. Those students selected as Governor Scholars not only attend a luncheon in May with the Governor where they are awarded certificates and plaques, but they are given the opportunity to take undergraduate courses at a wide variety of Connecticut colleges and universities as well as a prestigious scholarship opportunity from the University of Connecticut.

Established in 1933, Berchem, Moses & Devlin, P.C. offers a broad range of legal services across diverse practice areas. Now with 40 attorneys, they have earned a reputation as a law firm that aggressively represents their clients' best interests while maintaining the highest standards of legal service and professional ethics. Individuals, small businesses, government agencies, municipalities, boards of education, and Fortune 500 companies appreciate Berchem, Moses & Devlin, P.C.'s dedication to providing personalized attention typically found at a small firm, while offering the resources representative of a large firm. The firm is also a leading player in the field of education law and municipal labor relations in the state, with more than 30 years of experience representing the interests of public, private and charter schools throughout Connecticut.

"We are both excited and appreciative of this new partnership we have developed with Berchem, Moses & Devlin," stated Dr. Karissa Niehoff, Executive Director of CAS. "The Governor's Scholars Program gives highly talented students in Connecticut not only the recognition they deserve, but also great opportunities to pursue higher education within our state. Without the support and generosity of Berchem, Moses & Devlin this program would not be possible."

Berchem, Moses & Devlin, P.C.'s sponsorship of the Governor's Scholars Program and partnership with CAS is clearly a perfect match.

