

Elena Zongrone

Since 1982, Elena has provided leadership development and inspiration to over 1 million students, teachers, administrators, and community members in 40 states, Puerto Rico and Europe. This former New York State Student Council Executive Director also served for a decade as Co-Director of the National Leadership Camp for secondary students. She has organized hundreds of advisor training programs and brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to this workshop.

Richard A. Mills, Jr.

Attorney Mills is a partner at Shipman & Goodwin LLP and his practice includes representing public and private sector employers in all aspects of labor relations and employment law. He represents numerous school districts in education law matters, including student discipline search and seizure, free speech, and school finance matters. He will focus on the legal responsibilities connected with serving as an advisor.

*.5 CEU's issued for full day attendance.

Enjoy a continental breakfast, a practical "nuts and bolts" workshop by a nationally recognized advisor, "free" legal advice, a delicious lunch - and return to school with lots of new ideas, a network of other advisors, and a notebook packed with materials. This workshop serves both the "veteran" and the "rookie" and is well worth the price of admission.

Please duplicate registration form to list additional advisors.

The registration fee for the workshop is $50.00 ($60.00 for advisors from non-CANHS/CASC member schools). Please enclose a check or a purchase order made payable to The Connecticut Association of Schools and mail, along with the registration form(s), to:
