NHHS Presents Diversity in Action!

North Haven Diversity Team is in its' third year of presenting this interactive conference. The agenda reflects changes implemented based on feedback from last year's participants.

Also, the NHHS Diversity Team has spent the last year working with Yale and Facebook to explore social emotional learning. The conference this year includes an emphasis on the emotional well-being of teens.

What is NEW this year?

The Diversity Team has invited a guest presenter, Seth Wallace. Seth is currently finishing his MSW at SCSU. He works at the Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence and the Yale LGBTQ Resource Center. He will be presenting the opening activity as well as speaking to advisors.

Goals of the day:

- Students will consider the social emotional health of themselves and others
- Students will develop skills to help promote a positive school climate
- Students explore the differences that bring us together
- Students will develop action plans to take back to their school on the next steps they want to take

Workshop topics include:

- Exploring who "I Am"
- One World Together
- LGBTQ Panel Discussion
- The Power of Appreciation
- Be Your Own Ally
