

National Institute on Drug Abuse Grades 5-9: Mind Matters Lesson plans, Teachers guide, and other resources: The Body's Response to Opioids

National Institute on Drug Abuse Grades 6-12: Opioids What you Need to Know Lessons

Stanford University Grades 9-12 Safety First Curriculum: <https://med.stanford.edu/halpern-felsher-reach-lab/preventions-interventions/Safety-First.html>

Drug Policy Fact Sheets, videos Grades 6-12: <https://drugpolicy.org/resource/safety-first/>

National Institute on Drug Abuse website, scroll down the page: Parents & Educators Resources

EVERFI offers free online instruction for various Health Topics. In August they released, Prescription Drug Safety Training for High School Students. You can join online but I have other contact information if you need.
<https://everfi.com/k-12/health-wellness/>

From Beaverton Schools in OR
<https://www.beaverton.k12.or.us/departments/communications-community-involvement/fake-and-fatal;>

Botvin LifeSkills Program.

The Botvin LifeSkills Training program is considered to be a gold-standard substance use prevention program. They have programming for students in grades 3-10 and they have a separate program that specifically addresses the misuse of prescription drugs that can be purchased.

A model scope and sequence that shows how the program aligns with the Health Education Core Standards.

resources to support teachers with content

Northwest Prevention Technology Center Network \(PTTC\),

northwest@pttcnetwork.org.

From Utah:

<https://schools.utah.gov/curr/health/resources?mid=4975&aid=6>

This video is out there and free to use.

GameChanger \(gamechangerusa.org\)

The DEA launched One Pill Can Kill to educate the public and encourage parents and caregivers to start a conversation around the dangers of fentanyl, taking fake pills, and illicit drugs.

EVERFI

Prescription Drug Safety Training for High School Students \(everfi.com\)

Operation Prevention

Home | Operation Prevention