

SCHOLARSHIP CHESS TOURNAMENT

Eleventh grade students attending Connecticut schools, including home schools, are eligible to enter the 56th Annual Connecticut 11th Grade Chess Championship tournament and compete for trophy prizes and $13,000 college scholarships.

Sage Scholars, a consortium of 440 private universities, will give each player who scores 3-1 or higher 4,000 Tuition Rewards points, and an additional 9,000 Tuition Rewards points by completing and maintaining a student profile for college admission. Each Tuition Rewards point equals $1 in guaranteed minimum tuition discounts if the student attends a Sage Scholars participating college.

Hall High School, 975 North Main Street in West Hartford, will host the event on Saturday, November 19, commencing at 9 a.m. Four rounds will be played with a time limit of one hour per game for each player. Players who score 4-0 will receive co-champion trophies.

Eleventh grade students may enter the event by sending their name, address, school name, and chess rating if any, with an entry fee of $20 to Fred Townsend, 100 Wells St., Suite 908, Hartford, CT 06103, by the November 16 deadline for receipt of entries.
