

GETTING READY TO BE READY CONFERENCE!

A Residential Conference for Selected Aspirant Principals
Nominated by Superintendents and/or Principals
Designed and Facilitated by Practicing Administrators
Heritage Conference Center, Southbury
October 6 and 7, 2005

Who Should Attend?

- Those who are considering administration.
- Those who are encouraged to consider administration by their districts.
- Those who have administrator's certification but who are not actively pursuing administrative positions.
- Those without administrator's certification seeking more information.

What is the Focus of the Conference?

- An introduction to the role of the principal.
- A motivational approach to the rewards of the principal's position.
- A look at leadership qualities.
- Resources and programs through which aspirants can pursue certification and certified individuals can pursue the principalship.

What is the Cost to the District?

- $50.00 per participant (includes full cost – registration, meals, lodging).

How Many May You Nominate?

- You may nominate as many as you wish. However, space is limited to 100 participants so please submit your list in priority order.
- Questions – Contact Mike Buckley, Director, at CAS 203-250-1111.

Please return your nomination by August 1, 2005.

Nominator _____ Title _____
School/School District _____

Nominations

Name _____ Position _____
School _____
Address _____

Name _____ Position _____
School _____
Address _____

Name _____ Position _____
School _____
Address _____