

DESIGNED FOR PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

The Green Room is a professional learning video series designed to create dialogue and reflection among educators. The videos and discussion questions lead to a deeper understanding of teaching methodologies while also expanding viewpoints toward education in general.

USING THE GREEN ROOM

The Green Room is ideal for staff meetings, professional development workshop days, conveying schools' values to new teachers, and addressing specific situations. It can help build a culture in which every adult in your building understands the opportunity to play a significant and positive role in the lives of your students.

A library of Green Room Episodes are accompanied by downloadable faculty discussion and action plan prompts.
