Inspired

Col. Nicole Malachowski, USAF (Ret.), defies stereotypes. A combat veteran, the first woman pilot on the Thunderbirds Air Demonstration Squadron, a White House Fellow, and an inductee into both the National Women’s Hall of Fame and the Women in Aviation International Pioneer Hall of Fame, her distinguished 21-year Air Force career exceeded her wildest dreams.

But the dream came to an end when a tick-borne illness left her struggling to speak or walk for almost nine months. An indomitable spirit, Nicole fought back against overwhelming odds and prevailed. Drawing on stories from her career and personal life, Nicole will inspire you to rethink your challenges and urge you to go beyond resilience and become resurgent.
