

2023-24 IEP Quality Training Initiative

Calendar At-a-Glance

SERC and the RESC Alliance are continuing the IEP Quality Trainings for the 2023-2024 school year. This training has been enhanced to integrate discussion of the new IEP with explicit connections to the CT Special Education Data System (CT-SEDS) via live demonstration of the system's design and functionality. Upon completion, educators will gain capacity to develop and implement high-quality IEPs within CT-SEDS.

Date(s)	Time	Session Information	Location
Wednesday, 10/4/23 Thursday, 10/5/23	8:30 AM - 3:30 PM	IEP Quality Training for DSAP Teachers The CT State Department of Education, in collaboration with SERC, is pleased to offer this two-day professional learning opportunity for durational shortage area (DSAP) special education teachers to learn more about the key components of a quality Individualized Education Program (IEP). Participants will better understand the importance of: a comprehensive present levels of performance; identification of the impact of a child's disability on access to, participation in, and progress in the general education curriculum; determination of alignment to high-leverage, grade-level standards; prioritization of annual goals and scaffolded objectives reflective of conditions for learning and specialized instruction; and development of clear methods for monitoring and evaluating student progress. This training will assist practitioners involved in the provision of comprehensive and coordinated special education services to more clearly define their role in the collaborative decision-making process and ensure the development of a quality IEP that will result in educational benefit and improved student outcomes. Activity Code: 24-72-017	SERC, Waterbury
