

IKEA NEW HAVEN SUPPORTS PROJECT GRADUATION

Helping Connecticut Seniors Celebrate Safely

As a CAS-CIAC partner, IKEA New Haven is proud to support Project Graduation / After-Grad Parties for Connecticut high schools—helping students celebrate one of life's biggest milestones in a fun, safe, and substance-free environment.

IKEA Supporting After-Graduation Parties for CT High Schools

To support these important celebrations, IKEA New Haven will donate 10% of their sales from a May promotion specifically for CAS-CIAC families to be used toward Project Graduation or After-Grad Party for 5 CT high schools.

- 5 Connecticut high schools will be randomly selected from all schools that enter/apply.
- Each selected school receives a financial donation from IKEA New Haven to help fund their gathering

10%
Donation

How to Participate

- Simple school registration
- Open to Connecticut high schools

No purchase required

SCAN TO APPLY ▶

Simple school registration

Open to Connecticut high schools

Together, We're Supporting Connecticut Students

By partnering with Project Graduation programs across the state, IKEA New Haven is proud to help schools, families, and communities ensure a safe and memorable graduation night for Connecticut seniors.

IKEA New Haven • Supporting CT Schools • Supporting Safe Celebrations