For Young Men in Grades 6-12
And their Teachers
and Administrators

Personal development requires action. We must engage in situations and with people who will expand our knowledge and reveal our mindset, our skills and new information.
In turn, we then must design and direct a course toward our highest level of development and desired achievements. This conference will be an introduction to this
