

NAESP CONNECTIONS

Winter Issue 2018

Title II Part A

NAESP is continuing to push for funding for Title II-Part A, which provides formula funding to states for the purpose of preparing, training, recruiting, and retaining high-quality teachers, principals, assistant principals, and other school leaders. The program, eliminated in the Administration's budget proposal, is now being considered in Congressional budget negotiations.

NAESP's New Afterschool/Summer Learning Resource

This new exciting portal provides applicable NAE examples, outcomes, and insights on the development and implementation of educational programs to support the essential learning that can go on beyond or outside of the school day and classroom, and beyond the traditional school year. Check out best practice videos, state resources and more.

2018 Champion Creatively Alive Children Creative Leadership Grant Application

This is an exclusive grant for NAESP members. NAESP members may submit their application for the opportunity to receive a grant to help build their school's creative capacity. Each grant-winning school (up to 20 grants awarded) receives $2,500 and Crayola products valued at $1,000.

NAESP Connections

NAESP Connections will be a quarterly newsletter for CAS elementary members. Please look forward to upcoming issues. As your State Representative, it is my responsibility to provide input to NAESP from Connecticut principals. Listed below is my contact information. Please feel free to contact me with any questions, ideas or suggestions regarding issues important to you. I will do my best to relay the issues to our national association and our leaders in Washington. Your voice as a Connecticut principal will be heard!
