

School Pride. Bonding with my squad. Overcoming challenges. In high school sports we learn a lot from what happens on the field. We shouldn't have to worry about what's happening in the stands.

When fans, or parents, throw shade at coaches, athletes and officials – it's embarrassing – For Real, For Real.

* (2 different kids read "For Real", second time read slower for emphasis) *

High school sports can be AMAZING – giving us life long memories. So, we're asking all fans – Please, Please, Please – let us enjoy it.

* (3 different kids read "Please", read slightly slower each time for emphasis)*