

Members of the College Board are returning to CAS
in the Fall of 2018
for a series of workshops.

Each workshop is designed for a specific target group.
Schools are encouraged to send teams of up to 5 per workshop.

Because of limited space, no school/district will be able to enroll more than five.

SAT Mathematics and the Suite of Assessments -Train the Trainer

Tues, Nov 1, 2018 Registration 8:30 - 9:00 am, Workshop 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Cost: $75 per person from Member School, $100 per person from non Member School

Participants will build an understanding of the mathematics content domains that undergird the development of assessment items for the SAT Suite of Assessments. They will make connections between content domains and established test items, and begin to make connections to existing instructional practice. Discussion on important shifts in instructional practice that can impact both student learning and achievement will also be included. Participants will gain access to resources that can continue these discussions in their schools and districts.

Those invited are math teachers, department heads and curriculum leaders.

SAT English/Language Arts -Train the Trainer

Thurs, Nov 6, 2018 Registration 8:30 - 9:00 am, Workshop 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Cost: $75 per person from Member School, $100 per person from non Member School

This workshop will begin with a quick overview of the SAT® and PSAT/NMSQT® score scales, Benchmarks, and the EBRW test scores and sub-scores. We will delve into test items and map these to CT standards and the College Board EBRW test specifications and content domains. We will also review new e-learning modules and other curriculum resources to help schools and districts get the most out of the College Board Suite of Assessments. We will also spend time with the SAT optional Essay, the scoring rubrics for the essay, and Khan Academy supports for writing. We will build in some collaboration time to give participants an opportunity to develop strategies for next steps with other attendees in the workshop.

Those invited are English/language arts teachers, department heads and curriculum leaders.

PSAT 8/9 Assessment

Tues, Nov 27, 2018 Registration 8:30 - 9:00 am, Workshop 9:00 am - Noon

Cost: $50 per person from Member School, $75 per person from non Member School

The workshop is designed for districts using the PSAT 8/9 who want to learn more and for prospective districts considering adding the PSAT 8/9. The workshop will focus on:

- grade appropriate test items found in the PSAT 8/9 and the reports available for schools and students,
- how the PSAT 8/9 scores and results align to the SAT and other PSAT-related assessments, and
- new College Board resources designed for students, teachers and counselors who participate in the PSAT 8/9.

Those invited are social studies teachers, department heads and curriculum leaders.

SAT and PSAT Data and Collaboration Workshop: Understanding Score Results and Measuring Student Growth

Tues, Dec 4, 2018 OR Wed, Dec 12, 2018 Registration 8:30 - 9:00 am, Workshop 9:00 am - Noon

Cost: $50 per person from Member School, $75 per person from non Member School

This workshop will begin with a quick overview of the SAT® and PSAT/NMSQT® score scales, Benchmarks, test items, and sub-scores. We will be spending considerable time on the various methods in which to measure student growth between assessments. With new score portal functions and additional College Board pre-post research, we will be able to delve deeper into growth modeling using the College Board Suite of Assessments. We will also review new e-learning modules and other curriculum resources to help schools and districts get the most out of the College Board Suite. During collaboration time, each attendee is asked to come with a school/district success using the Suite of Assessments and a continued challenge in order to share with the group. Each participant must bring a FULLY CHARGED tablet or laptop computer and have "Detail Level" access to their school/district data portal.

Those invited are curriculum leaders and school district administrators.

SAT Social Studies

Tues, Dec 11, 2018 Registration 8:30 - 9:00 am, Workshop 9:00 am - Noon

Cost: $50 per person from Member School, $75 per person from non Member School

The presentation will begin with a quick overview of the SAT® and PSAT/NMSQT® score scales, Benchmarks, and the cross-test scores in History and Social Studies. We will be delving into the primary source document and social studies non-fiction passage found in each version of the test and think about ways to incorporate these elements into classroom instruction. We will also review new e-learning modules and other curriculum resources to help schools and districts get the most out of the College Board Suite of Assessments. We will build in some collaboration time to give participants an opportunity to develop strategies for next steps with other attendees in the workshop.

Those invited are social studies teachers, department heads and curriculum leaders.
