SPORTSMANSHIP Conference 2019

Sportsmanship, at its core, is acknowledging the validity of the opponents humanity, realizing that your exhilaration comes at the cost of someone else's despair.

Teaching people to respect the feelings of those around you, or even in competition against you, and to not make their suffering worse, is probably one of the most important qualities we can pass down.

EDDIE SLOWIKOWSKI

- 3-time Division I All-American in Track and Cross Country at Loyola University Chicago
- Fastest college indoor mile (3 minutes 58 seconds) in the nation, 1990
- Member of illustrious Sub-Four Group (run mile in under four minutes)
- Represented the United States at the 1987 Pan Am games
- USA Track & Field Team in London, England, & 1992 Olympic Trials
- Special Guest to the Illinois School Bullying Task Force

Throughout all the accomplishments and medals, Eddie sought to enrich his life with service and empowerment for himself and others. Whether it was in month-long service projects in Central America or helping the homeless in the city of Chicago, Eddie widened his world view beyond the life of sports. Now a father of two, he proves that a successful balance of life and business can be attained.

Eddie uses music and sound effects and amazing dance moves that bring his memorable presentations to life.

His dynamic approach creates an interactive experience for the audience that is unforgettable!
