Crowne Plaza Hotel, Cromwell, CT

at SERC's

19th Annual

Together We Will

Early Childhood Conference

Kathy Hirsh-Pasek

Are you an elementary school principal and want to learn more about developmentally appropriate practice? Have you heard about it but aren't sure how to apply it to your work?

Please join us for a special lunch session with our distinguished keynote speaker.

Dr. Kathryn Hirsh-Pasek is the Stanley and Debra Lefkowitz Professor in the Department of Psychology at Temple University, where she serves as Director of the Infant Language Laboratory and was the recipient of the Great Teacher and Eberman Research Awards. She has written 11 books and her work has appeared in more than 100 publications.

The presentation and discussion will examine the following:

- Defining developmentally appropriate practice;
- Learning how young children in pre-K to Grade 3 benefit from this practice; and
- Making the connections between standards and developmentally appropriate practice.
