

Using Technology as a Catalyst to Reinvent CT Schools
April 27, 2012
8:30am-12:00pm

Host/Sponsor: Dale Burkhart – Digital Back Office

Presenter/Facilitator: Lloyd Spruill - Knowledge Network Solutions, Inc. (KNS)

8:30-9:00am Continental Breakfast

9:00-9:15 Introductions and Overview of Today's Purposes and Activities

Using Technology as a Catalyst to Reinvent CT Schools:

- The Long-Range Planning Process
- Changing Pedagogical Practices

9:15-10:30 Overview of the Planning Process: Expectations and Outcomes

- Mission, Vision, Goals, Objectives, Strategies/Actions
- Curriculum and Pedagogy
- Infrastructure
- Professional Development
- Support – technical and pedagogical
- Funding and Marketing

10:30-10:40 Break

10:40-11:45 It's All about How You USE Technology: Changing Pedagogical Practices

- Write scenario from student, parent, teacher, or administrator's point of view – "The Classroom of the Future Today!"
- Participating in the Collaborative, Student-centered Classroom
- Understanding Project-based Learning

11:45-12:00pm How to Bring "The Classroom of the Future to Your School Today!"

- Digital Learning Suite and Services from Digital Back Office
 - Planning
 - Professional Development

CEU Credit will be awarded for full workshop attendance.

