Coaches Re-Certification Courses
Cheshire, CT -- FALL 2005

The Connecticut Interscholastic Athletic Conference
COACHES RE-CERTIFICATION COURSES

an investment in youth and sport

■ What are Coaches Re-certification Courses?

These course offerings provide an opportunity for coaches to experience quality professional development while also satisfying the Department of Education requirement to obtain fifteen hours of approved course work during the five years for which a coaching permit is approved. Outstanding presenters will provide contemporary, interesting and important information to coaches.

■ Who should attend?

Any coach interested in furthering his/her coaching knowledge and/or any coach interested in satisfying the requirements for renewal of the coaching permit.

■ General description

Interested individuals may sign up for any number of courses. There is no requirement that all the courses or even a minimal number be taken. The topics covered will be ethics and sportsmanship; CIAC rules and regulations; practical sport psychology for middle school and high school programs; team organization as well as team selection; gender equity and diversity; legal pitfalls in interscholastic sport; contemporary drug issues; and, sport nutrition.

■ Cost

Individual courses are $30.00 each. Take any combination of five courses or all five courses on November 18th & 19th and pay only $125.

Sign up for the November 18th & 19th courses and take advantage of the opportunity to earn all of the required fifteen hours of course work in two days!

■ Benefits

Participants will receive CEUs for their attendance and they will receive a certificate indicating the number of class hours earned toward re-certification.

■ When and Where?

The re-certification courses will be offered in October and November (see schedule on center panel). All courses will be held at the CIAC offices, 30 Realty Drive, Cheshire, CT.

Visit www.casciac.org/directions.shtml for directions.

Enrollment will be limited to 30 participants.
