CAS Middle School Student Leadership Training Conference
The Middle School Student Leadership Conference is a CAS initiative to train middle-level students in leadership skills. Since its inception ten years ago, over 3,000 students in grades 6, 7, and 8 have participated in the day-long event. Students will participate in workshops designed to increase their skills in the following leadership areas.

Building a Climate of Acceptance
Heroes Among Us
Making A Difference At School
Led by teachers, administrators, youth offices, high school students and counselors from around Connecticut, students will have opportunities to work in small groups.

- Student leaders will:
1. Interact with students from schools all over Connecticut
  2. Respond to role-play situations led by “Looking In” theater group
  3. Talk with recognized student leaders in Connecticut high schools
  4. Hear a keynote address by Amy Barzach from “Boundless Playgrounds”
  5. Share leadership experiences and ideas with peers
