Do you know an outstanding middle or high school principal?

The Connecticut Association of Schools has opened nominations for the CAS Principal of the Year Program for the year 2006. If, after reading the award criteria below, you feel that a middle or high school principal that you know is eligible for and worthy of this honor, please complete the attached form, or have it completed by someone within the system, and return it NO LATER THAN November 18, 2005. Your nominee will be informed of this nomination and asked to complete an awards application (this application will be due at CAS by January 10, 2006).

The Principal of the Year Program, sponsored annually by the Connecticut Association of Schools, was established to bring recognition to exemplary secondary school principals and to increase public awareness of the critical role that principals play in the education of our youth. The program is designed to recognize outstanding principals who have demonstrated extraordinary leadership, a passion for educational excellence, a commitment to their students and staff, and service to their communities.

Each year nominations are solicited for a Middle School and High School Principal of the Year.^{*} The winners are chosen by the CAS Awards and Recognition Committee, a selection committee consisting of active and retired principals and assistant principals. The 2006 selections will be made in February, 2006. Both the middle and high school honoree will be recognized locally by CAS and nationally by NASSP. They will also represent Connecticut in the competition for National Principal of the Year, sponsored by NASSP and MetLife. (NASSP does not include elementary schools.) The National Principals of the Year (one middle level and one high school) will each receive a $5,000 grant; the finalists (three middle level and three high school) will each receive a $1,500 grant. For additional information on the NASSP/MetLife National Principal of the Year program, visit www.principals.org.

All candidates must be members of CAS and NASSP and have at least three years experience as a school principal.

The CAS Awards and Recognition Committee reserves the right to reject any and all candidates in a category if they do not fulfill the criteria for the award. In making its decisions, the Awards and Recognition Committee will consider each candidate's professional qualities as outlined in the application, his/her recommendations, and his/her professional contributions to CAS.

We hope you will take advantage of this opportunity to provide state and national recognition to deserving school administrators.

^{*} CAS sponsors a separate recognition program for elementary level principals.
